LOFT BRICK LIFESTYLE

There is idea home to be made by people, not a place . Just imagine approaching your house dwelled by children's laughter and love. You come up closer and touch the rough Loft Brick tiles, then realize it to be the world's best place.

It's not only about your home. It could be your beloved job place, the most delicious restaurant in town, a hotel you prefer when traveling or friends' house where you meet to have a glass of wine.

LOFT BRICK
LIFESTYLE

Our tiles are not just a product, it's comfort, warm family coziness, stylish design solutions, and most importantly - a soul. Even the smallest tile is made by hand using only natural materials. Since they are of high quality, the brick building looks complete.

LIFESTYLE

Time passes season after season,
everything around changes,
the only thing remains the same - Loft Brick on the facade of your favorite building.

 LOFT BRICK®

Starting with small projects, we firmly believed our love for our business would make us something more than just a tile manufacturer.
We prove it with every new project, every new house, every order.
Thank you for choosing LOFT BRICK.

BELGIAN COLLECTION

"Tiles of character!"

A story that perfectly fits into the external aesthetics of the building:
just imagine how your facade
would look with it.

If the words "aristocracy and nobility"
could be used to characterize the tiles, it would be Belgian Collection.

LONGFORD

Exclusive handmade Loft Brick collection.

What does exclusive mean?

Each tile is made and painted by our craftsmen's hands. It's almost like a superhero among tiles. You will never find two identical Longford pieces, it's unique appearance is inspired by nature itself, every single tile is unique.

LONGFORD 30

Soul of Loft Brick. There is some mystery in it. If movies about tiles were made, these would definitely be worthy of the main role in your building design. Tiles meet all quality standards: high strength, resistance to temperature changes, durability and a unique visual component. "The beauty of traditions" is like a classic...

Even after decades with this brick your house will look new.

OLD PRAGUE

We love traveling, so the next stop is old Prague.

You walk along Karlova Street, look around and see the authentic houses of the old town in contrast to new cars, feel the smell of baking with cinnamon around and the all incredible atmosphere around.

These are the images that come to mind when looking at tiles of the Old Prague collection. You just have to start imagining the same house, and a small dream will come true thanks to our skilled craftsmen and your imagination.

RIEGEL GRENADA

Not only fashion designers create new collections every year, we also like to experiment, create something new and original.

So one day by the skillful hands of our craftsmen "Riegel Grenada" was created. You look at the unique porous pattern of each brick, and you get the impression that each of them has its own special story like fingerprints or like life lines on a hand. That's what we see. And you?

Looking at this brick you get the impression of being on infinite vacation, without any everyday worries. You would call us dreamers and it's true. Everything around can become art, if art is inside you.

RIEGEL DUBLIN

Even among the most sophisticated premises with perfect cladding, your Dublin collection facade will regularly catch the admiring glances of passers-by.

Be sure, one day you will be asked with genuine curiosity where exactly you ordered these bricks. And whether you reveal it to be Loft Brick - it will be your choice.

A close-up photograph of several rectangular tiles laid out in a row. The tiles have a rough, textured surface that resembles natural stone, with various shades of grey, beige, and brown. The lighting creates soft shadows, emphasizing the uneven texture of the tiles.

ROCKFACE 536

Immerse yourself in a symphony of textures and shades with our masterfully crafted Rockface collection. Each 535mm tile is a testament to the years of experience and dedicated work of our artisans. Named after its resemblance to the rugged texture of natural stone, the Rockface collection reflects the primal beauty of nature.

WHAT ARE WE INSPIRED BY?

The uniqueness of our tiles is that we are inspired by nature, its colors and their combination when creating every collection, each individual brick.

There is room for imagination even in the production of tiles: original shape, unique designs, special shades, exclusive solutions - everything you can imagine is possible, Loft Brick makes your dream reality.

Everything we do - we do together with people and for people.
